

Since I have registered for the national do-not-call list it is the first time that I have not been annoyed by inconvenient telemarketing calls. If the New Jersey do-not-call list has even more stringent requirements I am all in favor of it. I feel that if I want to do business with a company it is up to me to initiate the contact. I can truthfully say that any telephone telemarketing calls I have ever gotten have not encouraged me to do business with the company initiating the call, in fact it has done just the opposite and I resent that company for intruding into my home. Please do not repeal the NJ do-not-call list. Thank you.
